“ONE BLESSED WORLD: THE NEW FACE OF SLAVERY”
featuring invited guest
The Rev. Noelle Damico

Noelle is the Associate for Fair Food within the Presbyterian Hunger Program. She coordinates the PC(USA) Campaign for Fair Food, the church's partnership with the Coalition of Immokalee Workers to advance human rights for farmworkers and socially responsible purchasing in the food industry. She was a keynote panelist at the US Department of Justice's National Conference on Human Trafficking in May of 2010 and the keynote speaker at the Freedom Network USA's National Conference on Human Trafficking in March of 2009. She was a reviewer for the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe's paper on human trafficking. Noelle sits on the PC(USA) General Assembly Mission Council human trafficking roundtable, facilitates human trafficking awareness trainings for the PC(USA) and writes and speaks on the church's role in advancing a human-rights based approach to addressing modern-day slavery.

We are delighted to present a program on such a timely and important subject. Our gathering is open to all so please invite members of your congregation and other friends to join us...everyone is welcome.

Reservations requested by Friday, March 9, 2012. Cost of the lunch: $10.
