“RIPE FOR CHANGE”

“Then God said, "I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food.”
- Genesis 1:29

Saturday, April 12, 2008
6-9 p.m.

Sunnyvale Presbyterian Church, Fellowship Hall
728 W. Fremont Ave., Sunnyvale, CA 94087

An evening of film and discussion including a Slow Food* Supper

Admission: $ 15 per person

We will watch the made for 2007 PBS film "Ripe for Change" by documentary film makers Jed Riffe and Emiko Omori

This will be a learning adventure with the possibility of lifestyle changes (understanding the connection between food and faith, eating locally grown food, eating organic food, valuing agriculture and farm workers, valuing local farmers markets, beware of produce shipped from far away, toxic chemicals, value the taste or REAL food, etc.) and world-view changes (change unhealthy eating patterns of Americans, promote, value and advocate for local food choices.)

Important Links:
www.californiadreamseries.org/rfc.htm
www.pcusa.org/fairfood/
www.slowfoodsv.com/pages/reviews/index.php

RSVP: Pat Plant, Hunger Action Advocate at pat@sanjosepby.org or (408)270-0220